

Alameda Middle School

Ambitious ■ Motivated ■ Confident to Soar

January 2026

Dear Parent or Carer,

It is with deep sadness that I write to inform you of the resignation of Louise Fox, Deputy Headteacher. Louise experienced the unexpected death of her husband last year and took some time to consider her options. She has now made the decision to prioritise her family at this very challenging time.

2026 marks the 35th year of Louise's teaching career, over 15 of which have been at Alameda. She has been Deputy Headteacher for nearly ten of those years and has supported me unreservedly in Alameda's journey of school improvement.

I am very fortunate to work with three exceptional Assistant Headteachers – Ms Leonard, Mrs Sibley and Ms Jennings - who have willingly taken on additional roles within school during this period of instability.

Personally, I would like to thank Louise for her support, her dedication and her friendship. I know you will want to join me and Louise's colleagues in wishing her and her three children love and peace.

Kind regards

Jacqueline Ross
